With the NSW Super League second round commencing, improvements to some of the lower teams means that there is a hard road ahead for some of the topliners.

If five clubs might – subject to dramatic changes, be out of the Premiership and Top Five Championship running then some of them surely have the capacity to make more fancied clubs bite the dust.

Canterbury, with 11 points from the past four games, has a squad of which they can now be proud, especially as they have a goalkeeper of the class of Tony Pezzano directing affairs from the back.

Charlie Yankos readily admits that it took him some little time to sum up th potential of players such as Nick Orlic and Vlado Zoric, but he is now in no two minds as to what they can accomplish.

This all points to a close clash, possibly a 1-1 or 2-2 draw when they meet improvers Sydney Macedonia at Arlington Oval on Sunday.

Frank Lang's outfit is well balanced, and, with two of the Super League's leading marksmen in Scott Gilbert and Marshall Soper, they are not an easy side to stop.

Perhaps one of the most entertaining clashes will be Avala-Adamstown Rosebud at Avala Stadium on Saturday.

The possibility is that Dragan Pupovac's shoulder may sideline him, leaving a big task for young keeper, Christian Gonzalez.

Adamstown must surely be the quiet achievers. Neville Power has a side which has only lost once in nine games, although they have been more inclined towards draws than wins lately.

But their short passing game has picked up, and that all points to an intruiging encounter.

Can Blacktown City get back into their stride in their 5pm kick-off game against Canberra Metro at the Gabbie on Saturday?

The return of McPherson and Stewart from NSW duties should make a big difference, but it is unlikely that ace striker Geoff Gunning will recover from his hamstring problem in time to play.

The addition of Marko Perinovic should make a big difference for Canberra, and the Demons will find it difficult to scrape home.

Warringah coach Glenn Sterrey will be exhorting his players not to take too much for granted against Easts United, even though Easts are low down the table.

However Easts will miss Craig Sharpley (send-off), possibly injured Barry Walker, and dynamo Terry Palapanis will be into the first week of a two match suspension. The Dolphins, on the crest of a wave, must be overwhelming favourites.

St George, with players such as Glen Johnson, Gabriel Mendez and Blago Milicevic, are another case such as Canterbury.

Despite the absence of Jason Van Blerk in America, they will severely test Wollongong Macedonia in the Sunday night game at McLellan Park, Kembla Grange.

But look at the NSL quality players in the Wollongong lineup – Zlatko Nastevski, Jarek Nowicki, Stefan Janic, Paul Carter, Bob Naumov, Jason Dunn and Zeljko Jurin amongst others. How can a side with players of that quality realistically be propping up the entire league ladder?

They need a win over St George to have a genuine chance of rescuing themselves from the mire.

Rockdale Ilinden, home club to 'guests' Sutherland Shire at Seymour Shaw Park on Sunday, could be coming into their own after a less than satisfactory season.

Certainly having Mike O'Shea in defence and Grant Bard back from the NSW tour will make a difference to the Soccer Sharks.

The game should be closely contested with probably not a goal in it either way.

Honour for John Constantine AM.

Australian Soccer Federation Chairman John Constantine was awarded Membership of the General Division of the Order of Australia in the Queens Birthday Honours List, for his services to soccer. This was the second occasion on which he has received an Order of Australia distinction. Also recognised with an OAM was Mrs Pat Brusasco, wife of former chairman Ian Brusasco, for community services. Hearty congratulations to them both.

There's a lot of Frank Arok in Sydney Macedonia coach Frank Lang.

The same expressions – 'unbelievable' and 'sooner or later' spring to mind quickly.

The accent and, to a lesser extent, the voice makes one feel as though one is, without disrespect, talking to a clone of the former Socceroo coach and the man now at the helm at National League club Marconi Fairfield.

Which should not be surprising considering Lang spent nine seasons as Arok's right hand man and confidant during the days when St George were a force in Australian soccer.

The only thing missing, according to the personable Lang, is the 'shouting and screaming."

"Yes, Frank was good at that," he said with a laugh. "But he did much of it from the bench. I never rant or rave from the bench, only sometimes during training."

But, make no mistake, while he admits he learned a great deal from the Old Fox including motivation and how to handle pressure situations. Frank Lang is still very much his own man with his own ideas.

He has shown himself to be a more than capable coach since he decided to take the plunge by breaking away from the then established Saints and branch out on his own in 1989.

Lang linked up with Sydney Macedonia who were in the second division, and achieved instant success by guiding them to the State League first division.

Three seasons later, he is still there . . . much to the surprise of many people.

"Some people would say it is unbelievable that I have lasted 3 1/2 years at the club," he said. "But, things have worked out well there. I am happy and they must be happy, so what more could you ask?"

That he has survived so long is obvious testimony to his skills.

Strangely, little is known about Lang who admits he has been in the background for a long time.

The lack of limelight is something that has never worried him.

"I have always been in the background, so you learn to cope quickly with it," he said.

Lang, who will be 53 next month, arrived in Sydney from Hungary in 1958 after spending his junior days with Ferencvaros.

Lang worried? He may well be smiling later

He linked immediately with the Saints as a player and stayed until 1967 when he joined Melita for a year. He spent six months playing in America before returning for a season with Yugal in 1970.

Lang returned to St George as second team coach in 1977 and spent time under Iliya Takach and Raul Blanco before Arok returned to rescue the club from oblivion in 1981.

Then began a highly successful partnership which saw the Saints return to some of their past glories.

The club got back into the National League and won the title in 1983 and the grand final in 1987.

They were happy times for Lang, who has seen the face of Australian soccer change dramatically over the years.

"Yes, it is much better now, especially junior wise," he admitted. "We have really come of age with our juniors who have shown they are as good as the rest of the world.

"We are producing so many talented players and now Europe is looking to us as a cheap market. "The standard has certainly improved senior wise. National teams used to come here for a holiday.

"Now they know they are in for a hard time when they play our national teams."

Now that he is out on his own, Lang admits he has higher aspirations.

"Of course, every coach wants to have charge of a National League side." he said. "I am no different. Hopefully, one day I'll be given the chance.

"Sure, that has to be the next step for me."

But, for the time being, he is happy just to be his own man and to look after Sydney Macedonia.

After winning promotion with the club in 1989, he narrowly failed to make the semi-finals with them in 1990. Last season they finished eighth.

After a good start in the new look Super League this season, Macedonia has struggled recently.

"We started very well, but injuries have not helped," he added. "We have had too many players out."

Macedonia has NSL players Marshall Soper and Craig Moffitt on the books, but Soper has struck injury problems.

"I have been happy with both players, though they have come in for special attention from the other teams, especially Soper," Land said.

"But at least we are still up there with the leaders and there is a long way to go.

"I know we have the talent to be there at the finish."

Iriate, Seal run riot in Lismore

LISMORE:* Brilliant ball player Jose Iriate and goalpoacher David Seal were the top marksmen as NSW ran out 4-1 winners over Queensland in the return interstate encounter at Oakes Oval, Lismore today.

After drawing 1-1 at Perry Park Brisbane on Saturday, NSW, sponsored by electronic giants Samsung, was quick to take the initiative in Lismore, with the skillful Iriate opening the scoring in the 10th minute.

Iriate and Seal each scored twice for a rampant NSW, with Queensland's Olympic Games team defender John Koch replying for the maroons.

For his first offering Iriate broke from 30 metres out, with his drive finally beating Queensland keeper Wayne Evans from only six metres range.

Robbie Hooker

Shortly afterwards NSW coach Raul Blanco was forced to substitute injured Paul Carter with Young Socceroo utility star, Brad Maloney.

Queensland looked dangerous when NSW defender Mark Babic pulled back an attacker, but Alex McPherson, the acrobatic NSW goalkeeper, flicked the resultant free-kick over the crossbar.

Iriate was continually twisting and turning in the thick of things. In the 28th minute he fed Zlatko Nastevski, who transferred on and Seal slotted the ball in.

NSW's composure was shattered soon after the break, after the players seemed to take the attitude that victory was already assured.

Queensland captain Alan Hunter led a number of forays, but to no avail. Shots too often blazed over McPherson's crossbar.

Steve Jackson and Steve Bulloch were defending well for Queensland, and by the 58th minute John Koch had pulled one back for them.

Suddenly NSW were back playing the snappy Blanco style of football, and the doldrums were behind them.

Seal put the game beyond Queensland's reach in the 72nd minute when he slotted home in typical style from a Hugo Gimenez pass.

It was left to the reliable Iriate to net NSW's fourth goal with 12 minutes remaining, for a final 4-1 result.

NSW defender Robbie Hooker was outstanding again, with George Jolevski, Iriate and Seal also prominent in a team which displayed all round ability.

Queensland received good service from their interstate-based players, Jackson, Koch, Nick Meredith and Darren Hillier, but they sorely missed the stability of the injured veteran Frank Pimblett at the back.

Nastevski Goal Rescues the Blues

NSW and Queensland drew 1-1 in the first interstate encounter at Perry Park last Saturday, with Zlatko Nastevski recording the goal for NSW.

Playing before a wildly enthusiastic 5,500 crowd at well-turfed Perry Park, the Maroons shocked the Blues with a first minute goal.

Big Alan Hunter went up for a header from a corner, and piloted the ball over the line.

NSW defenders felt that the ball might have been handled, but in any case the goal stood.

The Blues toiled hard for their goal, and finally Nastevski did the trick.

He sensed the opportunity to come in and intercept a backpass, and finished off with a diving header.

Both teams opened up in the second half, in a tremendous bid to secure the winner.

The football was very clean, but neither side could gain superiority on the day.

NSW coach Raul Blanco was very pleased with the quality of football that his team exhibited.

NSW 3 ILLAWARRA 0

Zlatko Nastevski opened the scoring with a magnificent 30 metre hit to the top left hand corner of goal.

Greg Brown made no mistake with his second half spot kick after David Seal had been pulled down in the area.

The third went to industrious Grant Bard, who had come off the bench as replacement for Jose Iriate.

Quick flicks and wall pass movements used by NSW showed that coach Raul Blanco's style of play was being absorbed by the players.

DOLPHINS DEMORALISE THE DEMONS

By KEITH GILMOUR

With Bob Catlin in goal following his late transfer from Marconi Fairfield, Warringah Dolphins put on a second half spurt to completely demolish Blacktown City 5-0 at the Gabbie Stadium on Sunday.

This was a round in which some clubs suffered from the loss of players to the NSW squad, but others overcame their misfortunes in fine style.

Blacktown could only put on a reasonable demonstration of their prowess for the first half before an excellent home crowd, but they were completely unable to put away even one of the five chances they created.

In the second half, with Darren Stewart and Alex McPherson away with the state team and Geoff Gunning nursing a hamstring pull , some of the side were unequal to their task.

Alan Stroud, having his first chance in goal, received precious little cover.

The Dolphins were confident enough in facing the game to add a third forward to their formation, and Pablo Cardoso (3), David Batten and Frank Gigliotti put goals away.

Coach Glenn Sterrey was fulsome in his post-match comments on the contribution made by Richard Miranda and Steven Foster in the midfield, as they slashed through an ineffective Demons defence.

Avala 2 Canberra Metro 0

A 2,000 strong crowd saw replacement midfielder Tom Divljak in top form in the absence of Greg Brown and Hugo Gimenez with the state team and coach Mike Johnson due to illness.

By the 35th minute Divljak's pin point cross had been transferred into goal number one by Chris Ackerley.

Probably the turning point came when acting player-coach Mirko Radosavljevic blocked two successive Canberra shots when goals were imminent.

Then in the 74th minute Divljak's cross was headed home into the left hand corner of goal by Peter Vukmirovic.

Victory kept Avala at the top, but unfortunately keeper Dragan Pupovac's shoulder popped out and his appearance next week is doubtful.

In U19 Christian Gonzalez, Nick Jovacic, Paul Croci and Dragan Mitrovic played well in the scoreless draw with the strong Canberra outfit.

Adamstown 2 St George 1

Adamstown once again showed strong spirit, winning 2-1 over a St George who badly missed Socceroo Jason Van Blerk.

For Adamstown's first goal

Wayne Pierce
Warringah toiler

Neil Owens crossed to Ross Wells from the right touchline, and for the encore Dennis King hit a blistering left foot drive after Alan Gilday had squared the ball in from the right.

Glen Johnson obliged Saints' coach Dez Marton with his customary, but in the end the points stayed at Adamstown Oval.

Canterbury 3 Sutherland 0

Canterbury coach Charlie Yankos showed a deal of patience in sorting out his players since taking over, and now he reckons he has a better bunch than were at the club last year.

The 2-0 win over Sutherland, who had Grant Bard on state duty, proved that players like Nick Orlic and Vlado Zoric have now adjusted to Super League pace, and all around the team is firing.

Whilst Gerry Gomez collected two goals, the grapevine reports that with a little steadiness he could have had three more.

Eastern Subs 0 Sydney Mac 3

Both Scott Gilbert and Marshall Soper have been carrying injuries, but they still managed to get on to the scoresheet, with Soper netting twice

Easts were disunited when Craig Sharpley was sent off, but regardless of that they lacked the ability to get the ball through to give the strikers the service they really need.

Terry Palapanis continues to show out well for them, but it now seems that Sydney Macedonia are moving back to the class of football they demonstrated at the start of the season.

Rockdale Il 3 Wollong'g Mac 2

The Saturday night clash at Seymour Shaw Park saw Rockdale come through by the skin of their teeth, with Greg Lerond netting the winner from 30 metres right at the end. The return of former Polish First Division player Stefan Janic was a bonus for Wollongong Macedonia, and he obliged with a goal as early as the eighth minute. Rockdale returned with goals by Scott Deveridge and Bruno Beddoni.

SUTHERLAND

★ Although still only 25 years old, striker Darryl Sharp seems to have been wearing the sky blue and white for ever. And what a great team man this popular player is. This season, as in all the others, he is a great example of club loyalty to younger players coming through.

★ With something like a full strength squad at last, the Sharks were able to field two reasonably strong teams for the clash against Eastern Suburbs resulting in both teams winning for the first time in a while. Many weak joints were fully tested in what were very physical games and fortunately all appear to have survived.

★ The members of the Womens Soccer League teams continue to perform with credit and many of the young players are already showing the benefits of playing at a higher level. Three of the squad, Kellie Brown, Hanah Burton and Melissa Cenning were selected in the Metropolitan East High School team to contest the State Championships in Newcastle. Well done!

.....BILL ELLIS

EASTERN SUBURBS UTD

★ Rudi Jerkovic has scored a hat trick, but it wasn't on the park. Following an arthroscopy on his right knee, Rudi did the ligaments in his left knee the week leading up to his first game of the season. Two weeks ago he had a run in the U19s and appeared to be coming along nicely. However, within days he was struck down by chicken pox. Bumped into any black cats lately Rudi?

★ Striker Eric Ferguson 'nose' what it's like to be on the end of an elbow. During a recent game Fergie copped Terry Palapanis' funny bone on his nose. Needless to say Ferguson was not laughing. Despite seeing red – all down his shirt and shorts – it appears that the nose is not broken.

.....KAREN GREGA

ST GEORGE

★ Coach Dez Marton has been very impressed with the form of Jason Van Blerk. He is a key player who has been creating many of the team's scoring chances. He will be sorely missed by the Saints while the Socceroos' American tour is on.

★ Another player showing good form, but at the other end of the park, is goalkeeper Sean Lahiff. A saved penalty at a vital stage of the game against Rockdale Ilinden was instrumental in the Saints taking the points.

★ Not too many clubs could boast having the services of three former club captains and Socceroos on their coaching staff. George Harris, Andy Koczka and Peter Stone are assisting young St George Apprenticeship Scheme.

..... PETER STONE

ADAMSTOWN ROSEBUD

★ Congratulations from the club to Ray Baartz, a former Adamstown player and Reg Date, a current director of the club, on their induction into the Newcastle Sporting Hall of Fame.

★ Our junior Super League teams are still going well - in particular our U17s, under the coaching of Craig Hagan.

★ I'd like to take this opportunity to thank Bob Martin, our club Supervisor, for all his support and efforts on the weekends when he continually rings other grounds and the NSWSF for updates on other games. Thanks for the help. Keep it up!

.....PAUL COLVER

BLACKTOWN CITY

★ The Demons have been getting an enthusiastic band of supporters to their away games. One of the reasons for this is the work of Irene, Mary and Billy, who organise a bus for selected matches. Most Sunday away games have been attracting a busload of up to 48 people.

★ Jeff Doyle is a colourful character when on the field of play. He is forever moving, either covering in defence or finding space for that accurate pass. Originally from Ireland, he left there in his mid-teens to serve an apprenticeship with Coventry City. After failing to find first team football at Coventry he moved to Peterborough, where he was a regular member in their first grade side.

When offered the chance to play in Australia, he fancied the sunny weather ahead of the cold English winter, and so found his way to the Gabbie Stadium via Melbourne and APIA Leichhardt.

★ Damon Langan, still not 20, is doing a fine job in the Demons defence. He grows in stature with every match. With the likes of Craig Mason, Darren Stewart and Alex McPherson around him he can hardly fail to improve. Langan is the cousin of the ex-Derby County and Ireland defender of the same name. If he can keep improving he could rise to representative honours.

.....BOB BROOKS

AVALA

★ Coach Michael Johnson was a frustrated man after the recent clash with Warringah Dolphins. He claimed that it was only bad luck which denied them gaining all three points. This view was not shared by Avala's supporters though, who were very happy to see their side pick up a draw in what is one of the hardest away fixtures of the season.

★ Young 23 year old defender, Scott Ashton, is having an outstanding season in the heart of Avala's defence. He is also proving very valuable in set pieces around the opposition's goalmouth and as a result has scored four goals. This is one of the reasons why Avala is amongst the frontrunners of the Super League

WARRINGAH DOLPHINS

★ Marriages are the flavour of the month of June in the club. Jose Iriate will take his vows next Sunday 14th while Peter Gunning will face his biggest test of nerves on Saturday 27. Congratulations to both of them, together with their respective brides.

★ The signing of goalkeeper Bobby Catlin from Marconi Fairfield has provided a further boost for the club. He made his debut against Blacktown Demons last week. Although born in England, Bob played a deal of his junior football in the Manly Warringah Association ranks.

.....KEITH PESTER

SYDNEY MACEDONIA

★ Midfield playmaker, George Fernandez, has had an interesting career. Born in Uruguay, George came to Australia when he was 11 years old. He played his junior football with Moorebank, Marconi and Auburn.

In 1980, he moved to Avala and at just 16, he was a first grade regular. In 1980 and 81, he represented NSW and was also selected for NSW and Australian Schoolboys.

In 1982 he was selected in a 42 man squad for the 1983 World Youth Championships, but did not make the final 18. In the same year he was offered an AIS scholarship but turned it down after Unfortunately he missed both a chance to play for the AIS and Blacktown as the club finally would not pay the transfer fee that Avala wanted. George sees this as his biggest disappointment.

In 1983 he had a season with Sydney City on loan before returning to Avala where he spent two more seasons. In 1986, he had a stint with Uruguay Auburn but returned once again to Avala in 1987.

In 1988, George went on a world trip, meeting one of his idols in Glenn Hoddle whilst in France. In 1989 he signed with Sydney Macedonia and has been a dominant figure in the club's first team squad.

.....MATTHEW HOARE

WOLLONGONG MACEDONIA

★ The club welcomes the news that Stefan Janic is playing again. The former Polish First Division player broke his arm after playing only one game in the club's colours, following his signing more than 18 months ago.

★ Negotiations have been completed for home games to be played at Ian McLellan Park for the rest of the 1992 season. The NSW Soccer Federation gave the all clear for its use, and the ground will be shared with Illawarra Premier League club, South Coast Croatia.

★ A dinner dance will be held in recognition of one of the club's best supporters, Jimmy club on a voluntary basis for the past 15 seasons. The dance will be held on June 20 and some 400 tickets have already been sold.

.....BOB TALEVSKI

CANBERRA METRO

★ Tony Lemezina has returned to the team after missing out due to disciplinary measures. He appeared for the final 10 minutes against Adamstown, and came back to the fore against Avala. Tony is extremely dangerous inside the 18 yard box, and should link up well with Marko Perinovic, now that he is back from Hong Kong.

★ Club coach Vic Fernandez has decided upon a more attacking role for Fadil Muriqi, the recruit from Sydney Croatia. Muriqi it is hoped will now find the form that made him such an asset in the NSL ranks.

★ Bad luck for young Vic Fernandez, who damaged an ankle, and may be two or three weeks off playing again.

.....BOB BROWN

CANTERBURY MARRICKVILLE

★ The club was pleased to welcome Tony Pezzano to strengthen up the goalkeeping department. Tony had been with Sydney Macedonia, but decided to come across as coach Charlie Yankos was looking for a keeper who had real command in young prospect, but he has worked along with Tony in the past, including their spell with Wollongong City in the NSL.

★ He is surely earning the title of "Tom Terrific!" And that is Tom Pontidas, who is giving great service from the midfield and has scored three times in the last two games.

★ Coming into his own is big Gerry Gomez, a quality gain for the club. His partnership with Tom Pontidas is beginning to bring exceptional results.

..CHARLES EFTHIMIOU

ROCKDALE ILINDEN

★ Billy Pilovski made a successful return to Super League ranks in the recent game against St George. Originally coming to the club as under 19 coach, Billy was asked to pull on his boots again due to the rising injury toll. Lacking a little in fitness, he acquitted himself extremely well and will prove to be an asset in the heart of the Rockdale defence.

★ It wasn't meant to be Rockdale's day in the local derby against St George. After going close on numerous occasions and hitting the bar and post a couple of times, a penalty arrived which failed to find the net. To top it off, the team goaled in the very last minute, but in the meanwhile St George had already scored two.

ORSATTI BID TO HOLD THAT TIGER

By MICHAEL COCKERILL of The Sydney Morning Herald

Enthusiasm for soccer is something that has always been a trademark of Ron Orsatti, but he will need all the determination he can muster if he is to succeed in his latest, and probably greatest, challenge – to resurrect something from the ashes of Apia-Leichhardt.

Last week the Australian Soccer Federation delivered the last rites to Apia, one of the most famous clubs in Australian soccer.

The spiralling debt of the social club, which had been gathering pace over the previous 12 months, finally cut off the lifeline for the soccer team and the ASF had no choice but to axe the Bulls from the national league.

Orsatti, more than any other individual, had worked tirelessly and passionately to keep his beloved club alive, but it was always going to be a losing battle.

The financial problems which had beset the social club for the best part of a decade had always made the soccer team a year-by-year proposition, and when the board called in provisional liquidators two months ago the writing was well and truly on the wall.

A total debt of $6.5million, a dwindling support base and falling membership, and problems with improving the cash flow from poker machines and bar takings, combined to snuff out the last vestiges of hope for Orsatti.

At 4pm on Thursday June 4, 1992, Apia were officially pronounced dead.

For the traditionalists it was a tragic day – the demise of a club which had once stood at the pinnacle of the game, which had given us such great talents as Joe Marston, Johnny Giacometti and Archie Blue, and which had earned a reputation for exciting, entertaining soccer.

Ron Orsatti in happier days

Perhaps the club's surprising decision not to enter the NSL at its inception in 1977 has finally come home to roost – for it was that decision more than any other which signalled the beginning of the end for Apia.

The social club lost thousands of members overnight, and by the time the board realised the error of their ways and put a team in the NSL two years later, the damage had been done.

The supporters never returned to Lambert Park in great numbers, and apart from a lone championship in 1987 success largely eluded a club which had been accustomed to winning trophies.

Now the club is no more but Orsatti, who was a founding member of Apia almost 40 years ago, has not turned his back on the game.

Although the demise of Apia must have hurt him deeply, Orsatti has wasted no time in attempting to salvage something from the wreck, and he now has a even-money chance of success.

Orsatti has gathered a group of backers who are prepared to sink an immediate $200,000 into a new, privately-owned team to be called the Leichhardt Tigers.

The new team would play out of Leichhardt Oval, where corporate boxes offer a real chance of decent income, and would probably play in black and gold in order to cash in on the profile of the nearby Balmain rugby league team.

These are sensible moves, and it may be that the new team could galvanise enough support from the old Apia faithful, and gain enough new fans by improving a district base, to become a worthwhile entity.

Indeed if the promises of the new consortium are to be believed, the Leichhardt Tigers may eventually rival Marconi-Fairfield as a top-class NSL club.

The consortium has employed former Marconi coach Berti Mariani as a consultant, and if he can achieve the same off-field progress at Leichhardt as he did at Bossley Park, then perhaps those promises will be fulfilled.

For Orsatti's sake, we can hope that is the way it works out.

Few people deserve to succeed more than he does, because few people have put so much into the game.

Triumphant

Australia qualified for the 2nd FIFA Five-a-side Indoor World Championship Finals by winning the Oceania Qualifying Series undefeated in Brisbane.

Australia was very impressive in its matches against both Vanuatu and New Zealand.

It defeated Vanuatu in both rounds 8-1 and 8-3 and traditional rivals New Zealand 9-2 and 3-0.

Saso Filipovic

Australia's top goal scorer for the series was John White with eight goals closely followed by Brett Duval with six goals and Australian captain Robbie Stuart with five.

Australian coach Michael Contos was pleased with his team's performance and singled out the captain Robbie Stuart for particular mention.

Both Contos and his assistant Steve Knight have worked hard with the team in the lead up to the Oceania Qualifying Series.

The team started tentatively in the first game but eventually settled down to totally dominate the series.

The team coaches rated Australian player John White as the outstanding player of the series.

The finals take place in Hong Kong from November 15/28.

Granville Chile, Central Coast, Gladesville all Excel

by PAUL GOODWIN

A third win on the trot for Granville-Chile, another good result for Central Coast and an upset win by Gladesville were the features of an intriguing span of three days' First Division soccer last weekend.

West Wanderers were rather caught by surprise by the intensity of Gladesville's commitment at The Gabbie. The Bears were on the rampage early and sped to a 2-0 half time lead.

Pressure from former Wests player Bernie Voloder in the goalmouth led to the opener from a pinpoint corner, and the very effective Gerry Lepkowski found a needle eye opening not long after to put Gladesville in full control.

Peter Papoythis, Cyprus Star

When Wests hit back Gladesville responded with a late rally to wind up 4-1 winners and make congestion at the foot of the ladder another talking point this week.

Mount Druitt earned two penalties against Liverpool at Popondetta Park, but only converted one and had to settle for a 2-2 draw.

With five minutes to go Mount Druitt led 2-1, but a solo effort by Con Anagnastopoulos brought the equaliser for the visitors.

David Close, with a header, cancelled out an earlier goal by Rene Licata and Scott McArdle was the successful spot kick taker.

Auburn and Mount Pritchard enjoyed a close game at Mona Park, the 1-1 scoreline reflecting a match of fluctuating fortunes.

Tom Mihajlovic, coaching Auburn

Moon Cyung Kim's header for Auburn was enough to earn two points after Mount Pritchard had led very early through Anthony Driene.

On Sunday Central Coast showed all the grit and determination that has been their trademark all season to beat the formidable Dulwich Hill 1-0 at Arlington Oval.

Rod Brown's solo run from just inside the opposition half was a class act and a perfect complement to the teamwork by the other players on the side.

Cyprus United were able to extract two more points from a 1-1 draw with Campbelltown at Lynwood Park.

Mike Doyle had a fine game, testing David Hayes with a perfectly placed free kick before netting from a strong shot after a cross from the right.

Vernon Porter had given The Rams the lead a little earlier, but missed further chances to put his side beyond the reach of competition leaders Cyprus.

Lemnos Allstars have played better soccer and lost this year, but thanks to a glancing header from Mike Pillemer they were able to account for Polonia 1-0 at Potts Park.

Shock for Petersham at the Wills ground where after a physical game the scoresheet remained blank until the final seconds.

Then an inexplicable back pass let in Alex Araujo and after rounding the 'keeper the wingman put Granville into the winning lead with much panache.

Polonia will try to give new mentor Eric Woodburn a winning start at Chopin Park against Campbelltown on Saturday.

Preview Round 16

Polonia are not enjoying the best of fortunes and will need to be pretty sharp to send Campbelltown away pointless.

The Rams are the more likely winners in this one.

The same day Mount Pritchard will expect to defeat Liverpool and should do so at Ernie Smith Reserve with a goal or two to spare if all goes well.

Granville-Chile have their tails up and won't miss a beat at Garside Park against the enigmatic West Wanderers who probably won't be suited by the heavy conditions at this old ground.

Gladesville Hornsby would expect to take maximum points from Lemnos Allstars for whom Simon Beaufils looks like shaking off his injury worries.

Not impressive in their Waratah Cup clash a couple of weeks back, The Bears are going to be much harder to beat after they showed their true colours last weekend in the sound defeat of Wests.

Auburn United are due to win one surely and Petersham may have hit a rough patch so a win to the home side at Mona Park is likely.

Cyprus United are still unbeaten, but most of their points recently have come from score draws.

Could this be another one coming up against Central Coast who give absolutely nothing away and rely on a minimum of goals to see them home?

Coast could be just the boys to end the run Cyprus has enjoyed, but it is sure to go the full ninety minutes and will be played at a cracking pace on the smooth surface at Wentworth Park.

HIGHFIELDS AZZURI, CENTRAL COAST, TUGGERANONG CRASH OUT OF CUP

Seven big games, a matter of 400 kilometres apart, brought the Waratah State Cup's fifth round to a conclusion on the Queen's Birthday Monday holiday.

After a foggy morning in our capital city three games took place at Majura Oval, with Sydney side Hills United getting a tremendous 1-0 win over current champions Tuggeranong, lying second in this year's ACT competition. Hills had managed only one win hitherto, in the 2nd Division of NSW this season.

A goal in the 49th minute by Gary Bell was enough to see them through though. Tuggeranong worked hard for the balance of the game and could easily have got an equaliser.

Two late goals by Alan Rankin for Canberra City sank Panania, from the NSW Amateur ranks, the 2-0 scoreline arriving in the 81st and 83rd minutes.

Central Coast were first to score against Belconnen with a penalty converted by the 'keeper Jason Holmes.

A goal by Alan Reis in the 41st brought the sides level and it was only in the last fifteen that the Coasties caved in. John Walsh hit two in two minutes and Reis wrapped it up in the 84th for a 4-1 final score.

At Weston, Port Hacking took the lead against Singleton with an Eddie Tomasic goal in the 19th, but defender Cerkr Aktas beat his own 'keeper with a stray backpass in the 60th. Scott O'Brien claimed the winner in the 80th for a good result for the country club.

Weston showed little mercy to Fraser Park in defeating the NSW 2nd Division side 5-0. Andrew Tate's corner in the 27th minute curled straight into the net and Ricky Moncrief soon made it 2-0 in the 32nd.

Moncreif got another from the edge of the 18 yard box and Anthony Beckett and Dean Howard, who followed in a corner, were the other scorers.

Pagewood Botany did not impress in the first half against Hastings District who took the lead in the 35th. Zjelko Beres levelled in the 60th for Pagewood, who then took full control. Neil Hamilton in the 72nd and Phil Brunt in the 80th turned it into a solid 3-1 win at the finish.

Granville-Chile kept up their winning form from the previous day to defeat runaway Northern NSW leaders Highfields Azzuri 2-1 after extra time.

Alex Araujo hit a left foot screamer in the 51st for Granville but Azzuri pulled back with a Wayne Bailey goal in the 74th.

Twelve minutes into extra time a corner from Bryan Cokeley led to a cross from Aravena which Willy Piriz buried from 2 metres.

Queen's Birthday Results:

POLONIA APPOINTS ERIC WOODBURN

Former Scottish schoolboy international Eric Woodburn has been appointed coach of struggling NSW 1st Division side Polonia until the end of the current season.

Woodburn succeeds Polish born coach Andrew Pietryzk, who was replaced by the committee last Monday week.

An earlier meeting had decided to give Pietryzk one more match – against the Wanderers – before making a final decision and with little time and scarce resources plumped for a man from their own committee with excellent credentials, Under 19 mentor Woodburn.

Eric Woodburn

This will be his first senior appointment, but after taking the players at training for the first time last week he is confident that he has their full support and that the team can turn the corner.

John Grey, an Englishman with Third Division experience, is being signed from Lemnos and a new goalkeeper is on the shopping list as well.

Craig Thompson, a stalwart from last season and recovering full fitness, should return soon.

Woodburn will be a strict, but fair boss and has coached many sides with much success at junior level.

He took the Polonia Under 13s through to Under 17s for five years and got them to the semi-finals on three occasions.

He also was with them when they won the Under 17 championship in 1990, his biggest thrill.

Earlier he had carried off premierships with Rooty Hill RSL in the Blacktown Association in 1987 with Division 1 and 3 junior sides, having begun coaching there in 1982.

As a player Woodburn was with Scottish giants Hibernian from Easter Road in Edinburgh, his home city and birthplace.

David Naylor TOP VALUE for PETERSHAM LUSITANOS

By PAUL GOODWIN

The progress of the Petersham Lusitanos club, as it continues to perform well beyond the expectations of many rival clubs, is closely tied to the contribution of its former coach, David Naylor.

Born in Sydney and educated at St Patrick's High School in Strathfield, Naylor was a member of the first eleven as a scholar.

A product of the Gladesville-Hornsby District, he had already begun his club soccer days as a juvenile with local club Gladesville Ravens and was the one who was instrumental in bringing a whole group of those who had played with that club to Petersham.

The old Ravens crowd were a tightly knit bunch, who enjoyed a long and successful association at the compact Peel Park bowl on Morrison Road.

Coached for some time by highly rated ASF staff coach Denis Ford, the boys were well to the fore in the old 2nd Division, before deciding to amalgamate with the Gladesville-Hornsby Association's Federation club.

Ravens' favourite sons were to find success at other clubs, but most have linked up again with old friends at Petersham Lusitanos.

Naylor and the Ravens of old have kept together in the summer months as a six a side outfit competing in the Epping Eastwood competition, and since 1982 they have been undefeated.

In one campaign their outstanding goalie, Andrew Lacey, who starred with Ku-ring-gai and is now with Petersham, kept a clean sheet throughout the tournament which has been dominated by the team throughout this period.

After the Gladesville Ravens' Federation players had been with Gladesville Hornsby, under highly respected coach John Symon, for a number of successful years and enjoyed a brief spell with Graeme Williamson who took charge twelve months later, most of the remaining former Ravens sought pastures new as yet another coaching change was made.

Ex Ku-ring-gai striker Robbie Lowe had been carving out a niche for himself at Petersham and he persuaded the bunch to join him.

David Naylor, a striker himself at the time, agreed to coach the boys, having suffered from an Achilles tendon injury which interrupted his own playing career for a while.

He took over in the club's 4th Division days and a quick transfer to 2nd Division was accomplished thanks to the position the enthusiastic club bought out.

Naylor got back into action himself eventually, and, with their coach functioning as a utility man, the Petersham side did well in the higher sphere, attracting other players from mainly defunct clubs like North Bankstown and Ku-ring-gai.

David Naylor

Naylor has been delighted with the atmosphere at Petersham and is full of praise for the small, but industrious committee which gives the players and coaches a free hand.

Under 19 coach Peter Marscham is a good ally, bringing along the younger players and both felt it was a good move to appoint their old mentor, Denis Ford, last season, as their new leader.

Ford had a good year, taking the team to the semi-squad.

One of his signings, Mike Berry, has taken over at the helm this year and again Naylor is happy to take a back seat and remain as a valuable member of the playing staff.

His spare time is at a premium and that is why had to step down from coaching in the first place.

He is currently building up his accountancy practice which was established five years ago, and will probably return to coaching when he hangs up his boots.

He has no plans to retire yet, however, and Petersham will certainly be pleased to hear that.

Naylor believes that in the long term two or more of the existing Portuguese clubs should get together for the good of the game.

Even though it might mean the dissolution of the band he has led for so long, such a proposal would receive his support.

Once the business settles down, a return to the Gladesville ranks to do some coaching may be on the agenda, after his active playing days are over.

Naylor has followed the trend of so many of the Petersham clan who have got themselves hitched in recent times.

He and Dianne, whom he met at a friend's 21st party, have been married for two years and like so many of his team-mates he gets support from the sidelines from his partner.

Commonwealth Bank BILL TURNER 15 YEARS CUP

ST SPYRIDON, LEUMEAH EXCEL

Last year's Commonwealth Bank Turner Cup's cinderella team, St Spyridon College of Maroubra, opened their 1992 campaign with an emphatic 3-0 victory over Sydney Grammar.

After a first half of missed opportunities by both sides, St Spyridon were able to lead at the interval after half Chris Siagos netted a cross shortly before lemons.

Despite running into a stiff wind in the second half the Greek Community school dominated play. Chris Siagos scored for a second time, whilst Con Anastasiadis' pile-driver from 30 metres brought the scoring to a finish.

The standout player for St Spyridon was fullback John Tsakirios, who repelled many dangerous Grammar attacks, whilst Chris Spyropoulos, Stavros Tsakirios and keeper Lazaros Georgoulas all had good games.

Down in Sydney's South West, Leumeah High were opposed to Robert Townson High.

Early in the game a dynamic break by mid-fielder Graham Taylor opened the scoring for Leumeah.

Leumeah went further ahead after a brilliantly weighted free kick from David Reid and just before half time Nathan Bradley's cross form the left was headed in by Trent Maloney on the far post giving Leumeah a half time 3-0 lead.

The second stanza saw another piece of David Reid magic, when he curled a twenty metre drive inside the far post to the delight of the vocal band of Leumeah supporters.

To their credit Robert Townson never gave up and continued to pressure, with a late goal from Tomaslav Miletic. Leumeah are through to the Regional Quarter Finals for the first time in their history and will play Ambarvale.

BELMORE OVERCOMES FRASER PARK

by BOB FANNING

Belmore Hercules were hosts to Fraser Par on Sunday and in what was a close struggle ended up with a hard earned 2-0 win.

For Fraser it was a do or die effort with seven of the regular first team injured or unavailable for the match.

But it was Fraser who weathered the early Belmore pressure to get control of the game, and after a few near misses were awarded a penalty 21 minutes into the game.

Gary McPhee, who had just previously been fouled, stepped up to take the kick and brought out a superb save from the Belmore keeper.

Fraser then continued to have the better of play up until half time, but good goalkeeping and strong defence kept the scores even to the break.

The second half was very similar to the first with both sides striving to get the chance and with 15 minutes remaining Belmore were awarded a penalty when the ball was handled by a Fraser defender.

Belmore made no mistake with the shot.

Fraser pressed to get on even terms and doing this left themselves open.

Belmore counter attacked from deep in their half to score a good team goal with only three minutes remaining to wrap up the game 2-0.

Port Hacking defied gravity to score a 3-2 win against the ever improving Uni of NSW at Seymour Shaw.

It was Port Hacking who outlasted the Uni to put the winner away in the dying minutes of the game.

Western Districts returned to the winning list on the weekend with a fine 6-3 win over struggling Penrith.

Wests, who have been out of form for several weeks, overcame Penrith in the second half to run out winners.

Concord suffered one of their most embarrassing defeats in years, as Bathurst capitalised on every defensive mistake Concord made during the second half of their game, to take out the match 6-3.

Peter Melissourgos scored minute of play, when he unleashed a powerful drive from an acute angle, following a good run down the left flank.

Bathurst had the opportunity to draw level after being awarded a penalty eight minutes later.

Concord's 'keeper, John Coulson, pulled off an excellent save to deny Bathurst this chance.

However in the 29th minute Bathurst's Bill Sheridan headed in the equaliser from a corner kick, when he found himself totally unmarked.

As the teams walked off the field at the break with this 1-1 scoreline, no one could have imagined the avalanche of goals which were to come in the second period.

Although Concord initially applied the pressure in search of further goals, it was Bathurst who converted their opportunities to goals.

The onslaught commenced in the 63rd minute when Bathurst's forward, Scott Mutton, scored the first of his three goals.

This signalled the opening of the floodgates.

In the 70th minute Sheridan scored his second goal, when he made the most of a poor clearance.

One minute later, virtually from the restart, Mutton outpaced the defence, who had moved upfield looking for the quick goal, to score his second goal.

Not deterred, Concord pushed forward and scored their second goal in the 74th minute, through Steve Melissourgos, and looked like they may salvage the game as they had the previous week.

Further goals by Bathurst put paid to this thought as firstly Mutton scored in the 83rd minute and then Tony Clancy put the match beyond reach as he goaled in the 88th minute.

Concord's Nabil Codmani scored a consolation goal in the last minute to finish off the goal feast for the day and see Bathurst run out winners 6-3.

In the early game, Concord and Bathurst reserve grades fought out a hard tussle to draw

By ROBERT WHEATLEY, Schools Development Officer

As teams enter the second round of competition around the state we continue the series on ideas for coaches.

Today we look at modified games.

Modified games normally fit into the coaching session near the end just before its completion. They can occupy up to a third of the overall time of the session.

The emphasis, once again at junior club and school level is on maximum participation.

■ Soccer Tennis: Form two equal teams and set up a court like volleyball or tennis. The ball is allowed to bounce once only. Each player in the team is allowed as many touches as necessary before the ball is returned over the net. Scoring is the same as for volleyball – that is, points can only be scored on the serve.

■ Soccer Baseball: Two teams play against each other. The batter kicks one ball before running around the bases dribbling the other ball. The fielding team retrieves the kicked ball and either by passing or dribbling gets it to one of their team members who then dribbles the ball around an obstacle course.

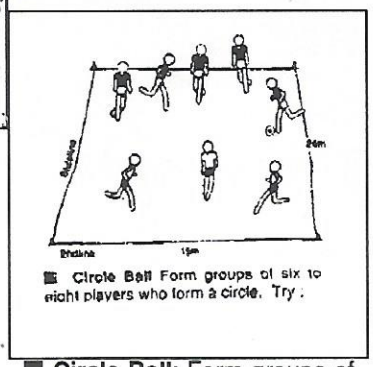
A run is scored by the batting team if the batter can run all bases before the fielder has completed the obstacle course.

■ Soccer Rounders: Set up a grid about 30m x 20m. Form two teams of equal numbers. One team (Team A) is positioned inside the grid. The other team (Team B) lines up at one corner of the grid.

Team A in the centre of the grid tries to obtain as many passes/headers, keeping count unti Team B has completed its task.

B dribbles the ball, one by one, around the outside of the grid until each member has been once. The last player calls 'stop' when finished and A also stops. Teams swap over and the team with the most passes/headers wins.

■ End Ball: set up a grid approximately 25m x 12m. Form two unequal teams. The team with one or two extra players is the attacking team and must try by passing the ball to dribble the ball over the end line of the grid. The smaller defending team attempts to intercept passes. The ball must actually be dribbled over the end line and not kicked.



■ Circle Ball Form groups of six to eight players who form a circle. Try .

■ Circle Ball: Form groups of six to eight players who form a circle. Try (a) keeping the ball from a player in the middle; (b) the player with the ball calls a player's name, passes the ball and immediately follows the ball; (c) players pass the ball around the circle while one of the group runs around the circle trying to beat the ball.

Understrength Bankstown Wins Through

Bankstown – held together by Elastoplast – and affected by the Saturday fixture with first team players Chris Seidel and Charlie Mellino on duty for Australian Indoor Squad, showed true grit to outplay Hills United 1-0 at Stuart St Reserve.

A fine off the ball run by Glen Woodhouse was rewarded when a switch of play from Mick Smeley was controlled in midfield by Carlo Giovenco, knocked to Phil Walker via Ray Power, and beautifully lobbed behind Hills' defence.

Woodhouse, wide left midfield, took it to the goal line, checked, and slid a perfectly weighted cross on the deck, and passed the keeper at the near post where John Larkin side-footed a simple shot into the net.

Captain/coach Tilt again showed his vast experience at sweeper, with Andrew Cooper and Phil Walker showing loads of class to outthink and play a robust but inexperienced set of Hills strikers.

Second grade can thank Phil Sharp, 'keeper, and Alan Dunn for holding out last season's grand final winner.

Peter Anderson and Brian Done, in midfield, playing against doctor's wishes, also brought experience to the young Bankstown side.

Ku-ring-gai Takes Tanner Cup

Ku-ring-gai won the A S Tanner Cup for U11 teams at Peakhurst Park on Monday, taking out the final with a 2-0 win over Southern and Eastern.

They last won the competition in 1984, and there is a strange co-incidence involved.

Aiden Kinder was in the 1984 team and his three year old brother Heath was the mascot wearing "1/2" as his shirt number.

This time around Heath was the centre-forward of the winning team!

Results for Ku-ring-gai this year were 2-0 v Southern Districts, 2-1 v Canterbury, 2-0 v Macarthur and 2-1 in the semi-final against Sutherland.

Playing brilliant soccer, Ku-ring-gai was the only unbeaten team, and in both 1984 and 1992 the coach was Robert Forrai.

St George once again arranged an excellent tournament.

MELITA 13s FALTER BUT REGAIN LEADERSHIP

by IAN MARRIOTT

A game of leapfrog was played in the UMBRO youth league U13s last weekend as Marconi managed to beat competition leaders Melita 4-0 to gain the lead for the first time in many weeks, before being held to a draw by Gladesville on Monday and seeing Melita jump back into the top spot.

Southern Districts had a similar experience when they went down to Illawarra on Saturday, but came back well on Monday to overcome Sutherland who had leapt into the four after Saturday's result.

The win for Southern sees them back into the four.

Sydney Olympic emerged as the most likely candidates for fourth spot after the weekend in the U14s, winning both games and overtaking Bankstown, who only managed a solitary point from the possible four.

Olympic also have a game in hand against St George and any points gained would be a bonus.

Sydney Croatia also made a move towards the top when they won both of their matches.

Illawarra remain in with a chance, having knocked off Southern Districts with two smashing goals late in the game and allowing Marconi to go to the top of the table.

APIA surprised by beating Olympic U15s over the long weekend.

It was an important victory for the Leichhardt team which keeps them in with a chance of making the four, and Gladesville also came up with an important victory over Marconi which also keeps them in the running although the win has allowed Southern Districts to move into outright fourth position.

Only five points separate second from eighth and any of these are capable of making the four with some eight rounds still to play.

St George were held to a scoreless draw by Illawarra which keeps the Wollongong team in the hunt, and also keeps Saints within striking distance of Blacktown City and Olympic for the top spot.

The U17 competition is beginning to sort itself out and it appears that only six teams now remain in with a chance of making the four with Illawarra an outside possibility.

Sydney Olympic still leads the way with Marconi just behind and it seems they have solved their defensive problem.

Marconi remains on top of the club championship with Saints second.

Bankstown are now dropping behind at the lower end while Sutherland and Sydney Croatia are neck and neck with APIA still not out of trouble.

In division two the gap between Manly and Granville and the rest has been reduced even more significantly.

Both Macarthur and Nepean are now in a very strong position to challenge for promotion, with both clubs having games in hand.

It could well go down to goal averages and on this count Manly and Nepean have the advantage at this stage.

Only two points separate the top four in U13s but then a gap is evident to fifth.

This suggests that the four may have been decided and it would now take a huge effort from one of the teams below to work their way up.

Unbounded enthusiasm in junior football

The U14s also seem to have settled somewhat with five squads in with a chance.

In this age group the gap is not so large and those just outside must consider themselves a realistic chance.

Avala have hit the lead in the U15s as Macarthur were unable to play. Both teams have still to be beaten this year.

Even though these two remain undefeated, third placed Nepean also are in with a big chance of winning the minor premiership.

The top four also appears to be settled in the U17s: Rockdale 25, Granville 23, Manly 22, Polonia 21.

Only a few matches were played in the UMBRO junior league over the weekend due to the annual Sid Tanner Cup being played ... see separate story.

NSW CHS GIRLS

The NSW CHS Girls Soccer Inter Regionals will be contested from June 16/18 at Adamstown in Newcastle.

Inter Regional Soccer began in 1980 and Hunter has been successful for the past three years with Met East and Met South West on top prior to that.

From the championship a state team is selected to contest the Australian Championships.

These National titles have been held since 1987 and NSW has won the championship on every occasion.

The Australian Championships this year will be held in Canberra during September.

An Australian select team will tour New Zealand in January.

Favourites for this year's State Championship in Newcastle would be the host region, Hunter, last year's runners up North Coast, and possibly Met SouthWest and Met East.

Rewards for NSW Referees

It is good to note that the top referees from NSW have been rewarded for their efforts over the past season.

John McConnell, John Bowdler and Gordon Dunster have been in New Zealand officiating at last Sunday's New Zealand v Fiji match.

Gary Power was appointed as fourth official in the recent Olympic Qualifying match between Australia and Netherlands at the Sydney Football Stadium, and he was selected to referee the interstate match between Queensland and New South Wales in Brisbane on June 6.

Gordon Dunster has been selected by FIFA to officiate as a linesman at the Olympic Games Barcelona in July.

We wish all of these referees the best of luck– especially Gordon. It seems this will be his first ever overseas trip and what a way to start!

We are all jealous, Gordon, but we are sure you will keep up the high standard our previous overseas representatives have shown in World Cup, Olympic Games, Youth Cup and Under 17 tournaments.

When you compare the standard of our top referees with those that we see on television from overseas, it is easy to see that Australian referees are equal to any considering the lack of international experience that they get.

Incidentally NSW supplies four FIFA referees and four FIFA linesmen out of a panel of seven from Australia in each category.

The FIFA referees are Richard Lorenc, John McConnell, Gary Power and Peter Spiers.

The FIFA linesmen are John Bowdler, Bob Davies, Alex Spiroski and Kevin Tooke.

Add Gordon Dunster to this list and you can see where the top referees come from – and Sydney clubs still
